

Dishwashers Checklist:

- Less energy is used if the drying cycle is eliminated. Look for an energy-saver switch that turns off the heating element allowing the dishes to air dry.
- Wait until your dishwasher is full before you wash. Two half loads use twice as much energy.
- About 85% of a dishwasher's electricity is used to heat the water so look for a short-cycle or econowash feature.